

Site facilities operative, Vocational qualification in Cleaning and Property Services, day-time teaching

Do you want a versatile job? Do you want to see the results of your work? As a site facilities operative, you will be able to plan and carry out cleaning of different customer sites from hotels to day-care centres.

A site facilities operative with a vocational qualification in Cleaning and Property Services implements maintenance and basic cleaning tasks. They are able to implement cleaning services tasks at different customer sites and customer service situations according to the service agreement applying to the customer site.

Contents

Completion of this programme leads to the complete vocational degree in Cleaning and Property Services, site facilities competence area. Learn about qualification requirements in ePerusteet.

Duration and implementation

Programme duration is approximately 2 years or according to personal plan. Studies include contact teaching, distance learning and on-the-job learning.

Admission criteria

The education is targeted at Finns, citizens of the EU and applicants possessing a residence permit in the EU/Schengen countries. If you have a residence permit in the EU, please attach it to the application.

- Suitability for the field: Good health and flexibility regarding working times are necessary for working in this field. Most positions require field-specific training
- Motivation and need for education
- Prerequisites for studying: Appropriate study skills and commitment to studies and degree completion.

Price

The programme is free of charge for the student. Acquisition of working clothes and working footwear incur expenses. You will study full-time, so you can apply for support

Place Turun ammatti-instituutti, Aninkaistenkatu 7, Turku

Apply online

Application period ends on the 14h of April, 2024. To apply fill the online admissions form here and participate in the compulsory admissions interview and language test.

More information

Team Leader Leena Sinervaara, tel. +358 44 907 3478 or leena.sinervaara@edu.turku.fi

Guidance Councillor Merja Berg, tel. +358 44 907 3041 or merja.berg@edu.turku.fi